

FALL EDUCATION COUNCIL SECONDARY CURRICULUM REPORT

October 23-24, 2018

DID YOU KNOW?

Policies for offering dual credit courses are part of the Pacific Union Conference Education Code.

A direct link to those guidelines & requirements can be found at https://paucedu.adventistfaith.org/uploaded_assets/529000

ADVENTIST LEARNING COMMUNITY WEBSITE Find an extensive list of courses and resources for administrators and teachers at <https://www.adventistlearningcommunity.com/>.

REGISTRAR QUESTIONS Dealing with policies and procedures, international students, registration, scheduling, academic information, transfer credits, transcripts and school records, college/university class credit (including dual credit), graduation guidelines and requirements, record keeping and much more.

Check out the registrars' handbook on the Pacific Union Conference website at https://paucedu.adventistfaith.org/uploaded_assets/529002

“All Pacific Union Conference Secondary Social Studies teachers have a subject area workshop scheduled for Monday afternoon, January 28, 2019, through Tuesday, January 29, 2019. This in-service will be held in Ontario, California. More information coming soon.

A LIST OF RESOURCES

Under topics such as accreditation, board resources, curriculum, differentiated instruction, forms, grants, handbooks and manuals, health and safety, scholarships and textbooks can all be found on the Pacific Union Conference website at <https://paucedu.adventistfaith.org/resources>

IN NEED OF MEETING VIA VIDEO CONFERENCING?

The NAD has negotiated special rates for an annual subscription to Zoom video conferencing products. Example: $45/year compared to the regular price of $14.99/month for Zoom Pro. Already have a Zoom account, no worries, Zoom has agreed to merge your account so you can take advantage of this special pricing. Check it out at the Adventist Education online store at <https://adventist-education.myshopify.com/collections/all?page=4>

